

QUALITY of LIFE,
COMMITMENT to TEACHERS,
EXCELLENCE in ACHIEVEMENT

Mayor Ron Gonzales and the City Council are committed to improving the quality of public education in San José schools with partnerships throughout the community. The Mayor has expressed his goal of becoming the most 'teacher-friendly' city in California by making teachers a priority in our community.

"San Jose is a community where educators are respected and valued for their important role: preparing our children to be successful for the future. Our success as a community in the long run will depend on the effectiveness of teachers, schools and families working together to achieve this goal."

Mayor Ron Gonzales

MAKE SAN JOSE YOUR HOME!

San José is an exciting city and the quality of life is unbeatable! With 300 days of sunshine a year, San José is the ideal place to live, work, and play. Our City is comprised of many great neighborhoods, each with its own special character - from urban living in the downtown area to cozy suburbia to quaint and diverse communities.

ALIVE WITH ACTIVITY!

Residents and visitors enjoy the City's many attractions year-round; museums, parks, wineries, cultural and performing arts, sports, recreation, and multicultural festivals. Take advantage of fun spots such as Raging Waters, the Japanese Friendship Garden, Alum Rock Park, and the intriguing Winchester Mystery House.

Cultural and performing arts, and nightlife activities are plentiful. San José is home to an acclaimed symphony and distinguished ballet company, musical and dramatic theatre companies, a rich base of multicultural arts groups and art house cinemas, upscale billiards, comedy clubs and sports bars. Several professional sports teams call San José home including the National Hockey League's Sharks.

There are many unique museums including the Children's Discovery Museum, and the Tech Museum of Innovation, with over 250 - interactive exhibits and an IMAX theater. The San José Museum of Art, the Planetarium, and the San José Historical Museum are attractions that contribute to the diversity and culture of San José.

MORE THAN THE CAPITAL OF SILICON

San José is also known as . . .

The eleventh largest city in the country with all of the conveniences and amenities you expect

The safest big city in the U.S.

One of the nation's best managed cities

The best educated population in the nation, according to the most recent census.

A diverse community with strong international ties throughout the world.

The center of technology for the world; it is the vehicle that drives the San Francisco Bay Area economy.

Lifelong learning opportunities in San José provide teachers with the resources to explore personal and professional interests.

San José State University • Stanford University • Santa Clara University
University of California - Extension Campuses • National Hispanic University • Eight community colleges

QUALITY of LIFE,
COMMITMENT to TEACHERS,
EXCELLENCE in ACHIEVEMENT

Mayor Ron Gonzales and the City Council are committed to improving the quality of public education in San José schools with partnerships throughout the community. The Mayor has expressed his goal of becoming the most 'teacher-friendly' city in California by making teachers a priority in our community.

"San Jose is a community where educators are respected and valued for their important role: preparing our children to be successful for the future. Our success as a community in the long run will depend on the effectiveness of teachers, schools and families working together to achieve this goal."

Mayor Ron Gonzales

MAKE SAN JOSE YOUR HOME!

San José is an exciting city and the quality of life is unbeatable! With 300 days of sunshine a year, San José is the ideal place to live, work, and play. Our City is comprised of many great neighborhoods, each with its own special character - from urban living in the downtown area to cozy suburbia to quaint and diverse communities.

ALIVE WITH ACTIVITY!

Residents and visitors enjoy the City's many attractions year-round; museums, parks, wineries, cultural and performing arts, sports, recreation, and multicultural festivals. Take advantage of fun spots such as Raging Waters, the Japanese Friendship Garden, Alum Rock Park, and the intriguing Winchester Mystery House.

Cultural and performing arts, and nightlife activities are plentiful. San José is home to an acclaimed symphony and distinguished ballet company, musical and dramatic theatre companies, a rich base of multicultural arts groups and art house cinemas, upscale billiards, comedy clubs and sports bars. Several professional sports teams call San José home including the National Hockey League's Sharks.

There are many unique museums including the Children's Discovery Museum, and the Tech Museum of Innovation, with over 250 - interactive exhibits and an IMAX theater. The San José Museum of Art, the Planetarium, and the San José Historical Museum are attractions that contribute to the diversity and culture of San José.

MORE THAN THE CAPITAL OF SILICON

San José is also known as . . .

The eleventh largest city in the country with all of the conveniences and amenities you expect

The safest big city in the U.S.

One of the nation's best managed cities

The best educated population in the nation, according to the most recent census.

A diverse community with strong international ties throughout the world.

The center of technology for the world; it is the vehicle that drives the San Francisco Bay Area economy.

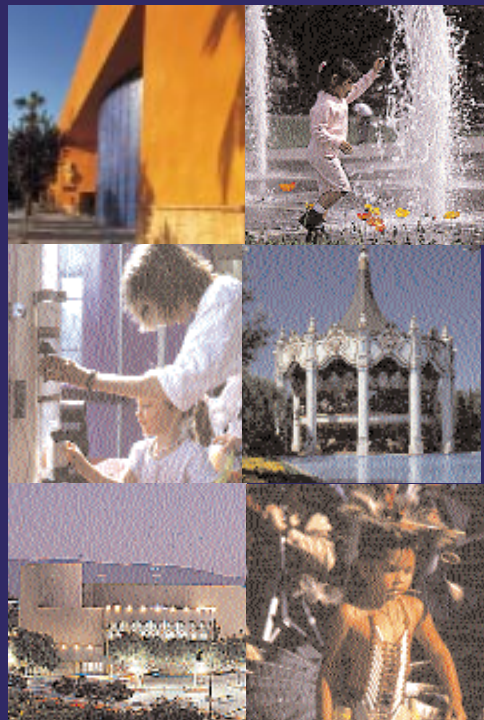

Lifelong learning opportunities in San José provide teachers with the resources to explore personal and professional interests.

San José State University • Stanford University • Santa Clara University
University of California - Extension Campuses • National Hispanic University • Eight community colleges

QUALITY of LIFE,
 COMMITMENT to TEACHERS,
 EXCELLENCE in ACHIEVEMENT

Mayor Ron Gonzales and the City Council are committed to improving the quality of public education in San José schools with partnerships throughout the community. The Mayor has expressed his goal of becoming the most 'teacher-friendly' city in California by making teachers a priority in our community.

"San Jose is a community where educators are respected and valued for their important role: preparing our children to be successful for the future. Our success as a community in the long run will depend on the effectiveness of teachers, schools and families working together to achieve this goal."

Mayor Ron Gonzales

MAKE SAN JOSE YOUR HOME!

San José is an exciting city and the quality of life is unbeatable! With 300 days of sunshine a year, San José is the ideal place to live, work, and play. Our City is comprised of many great neighborhoods, each with its own special character - from urban living in the downtown area to cozy suburbia to quaint and diverse communities.

ALIVE WITH ACTIVITY!

Residents and visitors enjoy the City's many attractions year-round; museums, parks, wineries, cultural and performing arts, sports, recreation, and multicultural festivals. Take advantage of fun spots such as Raging Waters, the Japanese Friendship Garden, Alum Rock Park, and the intriguing Winchester Mystery House.

Cultural and performing arts, and nightlife activities are plentiful. San José is home to an acclaimed symphony and distinguished ballet company, musical and dramatic theatre companies, a rich base of multicultural arts groups and art house cinemas, upscale billiards, comedy clubs and sports bars. Several professional sports teams call San José home including the National Hockey League's Sharks.

There are many unique museums including the Children's Discovery Museum, and the Tech Museum of Innovation, with over 250 - interactive exhibits and an IMAX theater. The San José Museum of Art, the Planetarium, and the San José Historical Museum are attractions that contribute to the diversity and culture of San José.

MORE THAN THE CAPITAL OF SILICON San José is also known as . . .

The eleventh largest city in the country with all of the conveniences and amenities you expect

The safest big city in the U.S.

One of the nation's best managed cities

The best educated population in the nation, according to the most recent census.

A diverse community with strong international ties throughout the world.

The center of technology for the world; it is the vehicle that drives the San Francisco Bay Area economy.

Lifelong learning opportunities in San José provide teachers with the resources to explore personal and professional interests.

San José State University • Stanford University • Santa Clara University
 University of California - Extension Campuses • National Hispanic University • Eight community colleges